

Kim Sosa

3rd grade Homeroom, Religion, Handwriting; 3rd and 4th Math, Science, Social Studies.

Kim Sosa received her B.S. in Professional Communications from Old Dominion University and worked in educational publishing, public relations and marketing for six years. After attending some Jesuit retreats and volunteering with the Cabrini Green Tutoring Program in Chicago, she realized her calling was to be a teacher. She went on to receive her M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction University of West Florida. She is entering her ninth year of teaching. Kim and her husband Mike are members of St. John Neumann in Farragut