

Kristi HalePre-k Teacher

Kristi Hale achieved her Bachelors in Elementary Education with a minor in Psychology from Columbia College of Missouri and her Masters degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Averett University. She taught in North Carolina for the past seven years. She has also lived in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Florida, Puerto Rico, and Illinois where she taught at Immaculate Conception Catholic School for four years. Mrs. Hale got married this past summer to Matthew Hale. She has two daughters, age 18 and 20 still living in North Carolina, and a step-son, age 6. She enjoys reading, hiking, and spending time with her family.