

Melissa G. FeltsMiddle School Math

Mrs. Felts is a native of Ohio. She received her B.S. in Education with a specialization in Mathematics and Social Studies for grades 4-9 from The Ohio State University. Mrs. Felts received her Master's in Elementary Education from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. She is certified in K-8 (all subjects) and Special Education K-12. Mrs. Felts taught 3 years in northwest Georgia before moving to east Tennessee. She worked for the University of Tennessee at Knoxville as an Educational Consultant for east and middle Tennessee and has enjoyed the last 4 years back in the classroom. Her husband, Kyle, is an engineer for Aisin Automotive Castings of TN. The Felts' have been married for seven years and have a two-year old son, Kyle II. They attend Immaculate Conception Church. Mrs. Felts enjoys spending time at the lake with her family and volunteering as an International Officer for her sorority, Alpha Delta Pi. She is the Cheerleading Coach and helps with the Beta Club.