

Mrs. Pricilla Jones has a Bachelor's of Arts in Elementary Education from Alice Lloyd College in Pippa Passes, Ky. Before accepting her current staff position at St. Joseph School she taught off and on at various schools throughout the U.S. and also in Italy, while following her husband, Brian, in his military career in the Air Force. She currently resides in North Knoxville and her husband now works for the Air National Guard. She currently is a member of Ridgeview Baptist Church in Knoxville. She enjoys quilting, scrapbooking, baking, gardening, and attending bible study classes. She has two children, two cats and one dog and numerous fish.