

Joe Aboumoussa
Middle School

Mr. Aboumoussa, a native of upstate New York, received a B.A. in English from Utica College of Syracuse University in 1999 and a post-graduate certification in education from Lincoln Memorial University in 2006. He also completed a Level 2 catechist certification through the Diocese of Knoxville. This is his fourth year of teaching, and third year at St. Joseph School. His wife, Amy, is a counselor for the Department of Human Services. They enjoy spending time with their son Nathaniel “Nate”. He’s the joy of their lives. He and his family are members of Sacred Heart Cathedral, and he and his wife participate as communion ministers, lectors, and also sponsors and facilitators for the RCIA programs. Mr. Aboumoussa enjoys playing with Nate, reading, watching movies, listening to music, and spending time with family and friends, walking, running, and studying theology.
