

Rachael Babelay
First Grade

Rachel Babelay has a Masters in Elementary Education from the University of Tennessee and is completing a second Masters degree in Early Childhood. She taught 3 years in the Knox County Public Schools before joining the staff at St. Joseph. This is her 4th year as a staff member at St. Joseph School. She and her husband, David Yelmini, live in northeast Knox County and attend Holy Ghost. Rachel enjoys reading, spending time with her one-year old son, Anthony, practicing Martial Arts, and scrap booking.