

William Lovelace
Music Director

Mr. Lovelace received his B.A. in Elementary Education from the University of Northern Colorado. He received a Masters in Music from Holy Names College in Oakland, California. Mr. Lovelace was a regular classroom teacher from 1982 – 1995. From 1995 – 2006 Mr. Lovelace worked full time as a harpist. He is beginning his fifth year at St. Joseph School teaching band and general music. Mr. Lovelace continues to work part-time as a harpist performer/instructor. He is the harp instructor for the Maryville City Schools and has teaching studios in the Knoxville, Johnson City and Morristown areas. Mr. Lovelace served as the National President of The American Harp Society 2002-2006.

Mr. Lovelace is now beginning his 41st year as a music minister. He began playing guitar for Mass while in fourth grade at St. Pius X School in Aurora, Colorado. Since 1990 Mr. Lovelace has been the leader of the 6:00 p.m. Sunday Choir at Holy Ghost Catholic Church. Mr. Lovelace and his wife, Regina, are the proud parents of, William Edward, who will attend Kindergarten at St. Joseph School this year.