

Jeff Morgan
Physical Education
Athletic Director

Mr. Morgan, a native of New Hampshire, attended Plymouth State University in NH where he earned a B.S. in Physical Education with minors in Health and Human Resources. He was a 4-year college athlete in baseball and holds several career baseball records. He moved to Knoxville in fall of 2004 and got engaged to his wife Jennifer on national television. He and his wife Jennifer have two young boys, Brady and Tyler.

Mr. Morgan enjoys spending time with family and friends as well as their dog, Sadie. He enjoys all sports and is currently playing and coaching baseball. He is a very passionate New England sports fan and can be found nightly watching the Red Sox.