

Karin Mountain
Spanish

Mrs. Mountain is a native of Bogotá, Colombia where she was valedictorian in high school. She is fluent in three languages. She came to the United States in 1994 and graduated from King College in Bristol, TN with a B.A. in Business Administration and Economics. She has 18 credits hours in her M.A. in Spanish from the University of Tennessee. She has been teaching for 12 years. She is a former Spanish teacher for Knoxville Catholic High School and the Episcopal School of Knoxville. She is certified in TPR storytelling, Tribes and also an active member for the AASTP (American Association of Spanish Teachers and Portuguese). She has been married for 13 years to Chad Mountain and they have two sons, Andrew – 11 and Matthew – 7. She likes to travel, serve in the community and be the best mom she can be.