

Mr. Moore earned an associate degree in electrical engineering technology and has worked in the electrical industry for over 30 years. He obtained a master's electrical contractor's license in state, city, and county. He also serves as master electrical trade specialist at Home Depot. He attained both A+ computer technician status and Network + system admin status. Mr. Moore has been happily married to Carolyn for 35 years. This is Mr. Moore's sixth year at St. Joseph School. Tim recently graduated from Bellevue University with a B.S. in Adult Education.